WAGON FALLS THROUGH BRIDGE AT JACKSON

JACKSON, Tenn., Oct. 24 (Sp.)—Being undermined by the flooded stream the bridge over Johnson creek, about four miles west of the city, gave way under one of the large supply wagons of the Standard Oil company, driven by E. C. Alexander, this morning, resulting in one of the mules being drowned. Two of the other mules were seriously hurt.

Mr. Alexander escaped drowning by leaping from the wagon as soon as the bridge began to give way. The creek was filled with water and the driver was unable to discover the weak condition of the bridge until too late to hold back his team. Possibly all of the mules would have been drowned but for the timely assistance of Neely Mayo and some negro men, who rushed to the aid of the driver and assisted in pulling the animals out with ropes. The wagon is still in the creek and a number of teams will be required to extricate it after the swollen stream has gone down.

Y. & M. V. WINTER SCHEDULE SUNDAY

YAZOO CITY, Miss., Oct. 24 (Sp.)—Winter schedules on the Y. & M. V. railroad go into effect Sunday making some changes of more importance on the road between Vicksburg and Clarksdale and putting on a new train daily between Greenville and Clarksdale via Coahoma. The only change made at Yazoo City, however, is the leaving of train No. 224 over the "Dog" road for Belzoni and points further north at 5:30 a.m. instead of 5:45 a.m. This change is made in order that better connections may be made with the revised schedules over the other branches of the road.

"Jennings—The House of Quality"

Foremost Educator Indorses the Cheney

Oberlin College, Oberlin, Ohio.

Department of the History and Criticism of Music.

Dear Mr. Cheney:

I was greatly interested in the invention which you exhibited at the Oberlin Conservatory last Wednesday, and thoroughly pleased with the results.

The reproduction of the vocal tones seemed to me decidedly superior to anything that I have heard from the other machines. The quality of the original voice is well preserved, and there is a gratifying absence of any unmusical noise from the mechanism.

The ability to adapt the amount of sound to the size of the room is not the least important feature of your invention. Your reproductions of band and orchestral music are far more rich and satisfying than anything of the kind that I have ever heard before.

Your invention will have an immense educational value.

You are bringing a priceless benefit to lovers of music.

I predict for your invention a distinguished future.

Very sincerely yours,

EDWARD DICKINSON.

WHOOPIING COUGH QUICKLY RELIEVED

Mr. Arnold Gives Lung-Vita the Credit—Lung-Vita Is Now Called L-V.

"I am pleased to tell you that I used Lung-Vita for whooping cough with my children and it worked like a charm," says Mr. R. H. Arnold, who lives at 449 N. Garland, Memphis, Tenn.

"In just three or four days after starting to use the medicine the whoop was gone and in a short time the cough was gone. Recovery and recuperation were rapid and in a short time they were even healthier and stronger than before contracting whooping cough. I am glad to give Lung-Vita my indorsement because I know it to be a valuable medicine."

Since Oct. 1, 1919, Lung-Vita has been called L-V. The change, however, is in name only for the medicine itself is exactly the same. Your drugstore until his present supply is gone, will furnish you our medicine under the name Lung-Vita, after that under the name of L-V.

WAS ALMOST DISCOURAGED

Constant Headache and Much Soreness and Pain Nearly Got the Best of This Harrisburg Lady, But Cardui Made Her Well and Strong.

Harrisburg, Ark.—Mrs. J. M. Needham, living near here states: "When I began working on me I suffered a great deal. I had no much soreness and pain in the lower part of my body I could hardly get up when I was down. I would have severe pains, all across my back, and my sides hurt me all the time. I would have headache constantly, especially the back of my head and neck. I was almost discouraged with my condition when I thought of Cardui, and decided to see what it would do."

I saw an improvement at once after the first bottle. I kept it up and the result was wonderful. I took altogether four bottles. I grew stronger, better appetite, less pain until I was well. I think Cardui is a Godsend to suffering women, and I certainly can praise it, and do so."

For more than 40 years Cardui has been in general use and in that time thousands have written to tell us how it helped them back to health and strength.

MISSISSIPPI BEAT IS AGAINST ROAD BONDS

MEMPHIS, Miss., Oct. 24 (Sp.)—All hope for federal aid was lost in beat 3 with the defeat of the $75,000 bond issue, which received 125 votes in the affirmative and 183 against.

The best some time ago voted $35,000, good roads bonds by a heavy majority. This was found to exceed the property valuation and was declared void, necessitating another election with the above results. Considerable dissension had arisen in the district over the routing and expenditure to be made on the roads.

YAZOO CITY, Miss., Oct. 24 (Sp.)—Dr. J. C. Zeller, chairman for Yazoo county's allotment of $100 for the Roosevelt fund, has been campaigning, well under way and expects at the close of the campaign next Monday to be able to report Yazoo county's funds, fully met. Messrs. F. R. Conn, John Bennett, H. E. Ellis, S. Summerfield and M. J. McGuire have been named as the county's executive committee.

TRI-STATE NEWS

STATE HIGHWAYS SOCIETY FORMED

Mississippi Road Boosters Are After $25,000,000 for Good Roads.

JACKSON, Miss., Oct. 24 (Sp.)—Organization of a state highways improvement association to push a state bond issue of $25,000,000 for good roads, with J. T. Thomas, of Grenada, as president, featured a meeting of prominent better highway enthusiasts from all over the state held in this city Friday.

Cliff Williams was named general vice-president; W. T. Pate, of Jackson, secretary; Oscar Newton, of Jackson, treasurer, and the following vice-presidents were elected, one from each congressional district: E. Bunyan Carter, Aberdeen; R. L. Small, New Albany; E. P. Mangum, Tunica; W. B. Hoffa, Grenada; Kirk Hughes, Meridian; H. E. Blakeslee, Gulfport; J. P. Fram, Tyler-town and Glen Steen, Vicksburg.

Gov. Theo. G. Bilbo in the opening address of the gathering declared he would recommend a state bond issue of $25,000,000 for good roads in his message to the incoming legislature and he believed the suggestion would be well received and be successful.

N. A. Kramer, state highway engineer, who presided at the gathering, the most representative held here in some time, told of the proposal to retire the bond issue with a tax on motor vehicles and of the cordial expressions that had greeted his suggestion.

The by-laws as framed by the association provide for a chairman in each county to carry on successfully the campaign in favor of the bond issue. Chairmen were appointed and will begin immediately the work.

BETTER HEALTH FOR MISSISSIPPI, IS SLOGAN

JACKSON, Miss., Oct. 24 (Sp.)—The scientific physical examination of every school child and the greater development of rural sanitation, the two permanent full-time boards of health in each county, are the objectives toward which the health forces of Mississippi are now pushing. Dr. H. F. Garrison, president of the State Public Health Association, the members of that body in its fifth annual convention here, the work of the various health forces of the state has been exceptional during the past year, Dr. Garrison declared, and future accomplishments will be even greater. Interest is more keen just now in public health matters here, before, he declared, and every force in the state is behind the objectives outlined for this year.

Several hundred members of the state's health forces are here and have enjoyed splendid round table discussions on matters of professional interest. The meeting ends this afternoon with the election of officers.
